

Trinity Episcopal Church

Holy Eucharist Rite II

Fifth Sunday in Lent

April 06, 2025 - 10:00 AM

The Very Rev. Canon Bill Dunn, Celebrant

Welcome to Trinity Episcopal Church!

We are blessed that you have come to worship with us today. Our service, based on the practice of the early church, is drawn from the Book of Common Prayer, the Old and New Testaments of the Holy Bible.

Wherever you are on your journey of faith, you are invited to come to the Lord's Table and receive the Lord Jesus Christ in the consecrated Bread (or Host) and Wine. By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons.

If you enjoy your time with us, consider coming back and asking about our ministries in the areas of worship and music, prayer, community outreach, women's and men's spirituality, communications, and Christian education.

Birthday Blessing

Watch over your child(ren), O Lord, as his/her/their days increase; bless and guide him/her/them wherever he/she/they may be, keeping him/her/them unspotted from the world. Strengthen him/her/them when he/she/they stand(s); comfort him/her/them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise him/her/them up if he/she/they fall(s); and in his/her/their heart(s) may your peace which passes understanding abide all the days of his/her/their life/lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Marriage Anniversary Prayer

O God, you have so consecrated the covenant of marriage that in it is represented the spiritual unity between Christ and his Church: Send therefore your blessing upon these your servants, that they may so love, honor, and cherish each other in faithfulness and patience, in wisdom and true godliness, that their home may be a haven of blessing and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Collect of the Day

Almighty God, you alone can bring into order the unruly wills and affections of sinners: Grant your people grace to love what you command and desire what you promise; that, among the swift and varied changes of the world, our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Readings for April 06, 2025

The First Reading

Isaiah 43:16-21

Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

Psalm 126

Tone II, 1

- 1 When the LORD restored the fortunes of / Zion, *
then were we / like those who dream.
- 2 Then was our mouth filled with / laughter, *
and our tongue / with shouts of joy.
- 3 Then they said among the/ nations, *
"The LORD has done / great things for them."
- 4 The LORD has done great things for / us, *
and we / are glad indeed.
- 5 Restore our fortunes, O / LORD, *
like the watercourses of / the Negev.
- 6 Those who sowed with / tears *
will reap / with songs of joy.
- 7 Those who go out weeping, carrying the/ seed, *
will come again with joy, shoul-/dering their sheaves.

The Second Reading

Philippians 3:4b-14

If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days before the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

Anthem Texts

Introit

Dear Refuge of My Weary Soul

*Words and Music by Anne Steele, alt. (1717-1778)
Arranged by Shelton Ridge Love*

Dear refuge of my weary soul, on You, when sorrows rise,
On You, when waves of trouble roll, my fainting hope relies.
To You I tell each rising grief, for You alone can heal;
Your Word can bring a sweet relief for every pain I feel.

Have you not bid me seek Your face, and shall I seek in vain?
And can the ear of sovereign grace be deaf when I complain?
No, still the ear of sovereign grace
 attends the mourner's prayer;
O may I ever find a place to breathe my sorrows there.

O gracious God, where shall I flee? You are my only trust;
My weary soul will cleave to You, though prostrate in the dust.
Your mercy seat is open still, here let my soul retreat;
With humble hope attend Your will, and wait beneath Your feet.

Dear refuge of my weary soul, I wait beneath Your feet.

Offertory Anthem Arise, My Soul, Arise

*Tune: Chodan
Dan Forrest*

Arise, my soul, arise, Shake off thy guilty fears:
The bleeding Sacrifice in my behalf appears:
Before the Throne, my Surety stands,
My name is written on His hands.

Five bleeding wounds He bears, received on Calvary.
They pour effectual prayers, they strongly plead for me.
"Forgive him, O, forgive," they cry,
"Nor let that ransomed sinner die."

My God is reconciled, His voice I hear,
He owns His child, I can no longer fear;
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

Arise, my soul, arise!

Communion Anthem

Who At My Door Is Standing?

K. Lee Scott

Who at my door is standing,
There patiently drawing near,
Who entrance is demanding?
Whose is the voice I hear?
Sweetly the tones are falling:
“Now open the door for me!
If thou wilt heed my calling,
I will abide with thee.”

Within, the rooms are darken'd,
All filled with dust and sin;
How shameful, how unworthy
For Christ to enter in.
Yet, the tones are falling:
“Now open the door for me!
If thou wilt heed my calling,
I will abide with thee.”

Door of my heart, I hasten!
Thee will I open wide.
Though he rebuke and chasten,
He shall with me abide.
Sweetly the tones are falling:
“Now open the door for me!”
Lord God, I hear thee calling,
Come now, abide with me.
Dear Lord, abide with me!
